PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter is before The Medical Licensure Commission of Alabama and it has been made aware that discovery in this case involves patient health records, patient health information, information regarding medical practitioner(s), and also involves potentially confidential information involving personnel information and/or proprietary information. As such, it will facilitate discovery without prejudice to any party to enter the following Protective Order.

A. Confidential Documents and Information

Confidential Documents and Information contained therein shall be used by the parties only for the purpose of the prosecution or defense of this action, and shall not be communicated in any manner to anyone other than those persons listed herein below without order of the Commission after due notice to the producing party. Documents produced after entry of this Protective Order (including copies, excerpts, digests, summaries or indices thereof) by a party shall be considered confidential unless otherwise specified. Confidential information shall include any and all personnel information. At the close of this case, all parties should return all Confidential Documents to the producing party or verify in writing that all documentation has been destroyed.

B. Healthcare/Patient Information

Any and all healthcare/patient information is Confidential. The parties are hereby granted the right, upon compliance with the applicable discovery provisions of the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure and the orders of this court, to obtain from any health care provider, health plan, or other entity covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-191, 110 Stat. 1936 (1996) (HIPAA), any and all information relating to the past, present, or future medical condition of any individual who has been a patient of any party to this action, as well as any and all information relating to the provision of health care to such individual and payment for the provision of such health care. This order authorizes any third party who is provided with a subpoena requesting the production of documents or commanding attendance at deposition or trial to disclose the Protected Health Information in response to such request or subpoena. This order is intended to authorize such disclosures under the privacy regulations issued pursuant to HIPAA. 45 C.F.R. 164.512(e)(1)(i). The parties are ordered to either return to the covered entity from whom or which such protected information was obtained, or to destroy the protected information (including all copies made), immediately upon conclusion of this action. See 45 C. F. R. 163.502(b); 164.512(e)(1)(v).

C. Prescription Drug Monitoring Program (PDMP)

The PDMP used in the prosecution of this case and provided to Defense counsel is the property of the State of Alabama and is highly confidential. The PDMP in its entirety or any part thereof should not be shared, copied, and/or distributed outside Defense counsel's office or the proceedings of this case. The PDMP should be logged and tracked from the time it is received until it is destroyed, and the log should note whether copies of the PDMP and/or portions of the PDMP are made. Upon conclusion of this case, Defense counsel are ordered to certify under oath that it has destroyed all copies of the PDMP in its possession or constructive possession including all electronic and hard copies, portions, exhibits, and devices used to transfer the PDMP and/or portions of the PDMP.

D. General Provisions

1. In regards to any documentation protected by this Order, the parties are expressly prohibited from using or disclosing the protected information obtained pursuant to this order for any purpose other than this action. To that end, the Commission finds that any protected information produced or otherwise obtained by any party in this case shall be disclosed only to the following:

    a. The Commission;
    b. Counsel for a party, and his or her agents and employees;
    c. Persons with prior legal access to said records;
    d. The Commission officials involved in the litigation, including court reporters;
    e. Persons noticed for deposition or designated as trial witnesses, to the extent reasonably necessary in preparing to testify or actually giving testimony, provided such persons are directed to keep confidential those matters protected by this order; and
    f. Outside consultants or experts retained for the purpose of assisting counsel in the litigation, or in anticipation of such, provided said persons are directed to keep confidential those matters protected by this order.

2. Prior to making a disclosure of any confidential documents or information, counsel for the parties shall inform any person to whom disclosure is being made that the information or documents, or any portions thereof, may only be used for the purpose set forth in this Protective Order. Additionally, each person to whom disclosure of confidential documents and information is permitted shall be shown a copy of this Order and shall be specifically advised by counsel that this Order applies to, and is binding upon, such individual.

3. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party from any use of his or her own confidential documents.

4. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of any discovery objection by any party made in good faith pursuant to the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure of any confidential information shall not be construed to be a waiver, in whole or part, of any party's claim of confidentiality, either as to the specific confidential information disclosed or as to other related information.

6. Any party desiring to submit or file with the Commission, in connection with any pretrial proceedings, any writing which contain, set forth, summarize or otherwise disclose Confidential Documents or Information, shall take all necessary steps to protect the confidentiality of all Confidential Documents and Information.

7. At the trial of this cause, the parties agree that the protection of the confidentiality of Confidential Documents shall continue to the maximum extent permitted by the Court, pursuant to such procedures as the Court may require.

8. Before seeking relief from the Commission due to an alleged violation of this Order, the party seeking relief shall attempt to resolve the matter by agreement with the other party.

9. The terms of this Order are subject to modification, extension or limitation as may be hereinafter agreed to by all the parties or by Order of this Commission.

DONE this 26th day of June, 2019.

BEFORE THE MEDICAL LICENSURE COMMISSION OF ALABAMA

ALABAMA STATE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS, Complainant, vs. RUSSELL WAYNE STEVENS, M.D. Respondent.	)	Case No. 15-005

ORDER

This cause came before the Medical Licensure Commission of Alabama for probation compliance hearing on June 26, 2019. Dr. Stevens was present and testified. Dr. Stevens's license was placed on probation by Order entered in this case on February 1, 2018 (the Probationary Order). A practice plan was approved in accordance with that Order on May 31, 2018, and a payment plan was set by Order of November 2, 2018.

Those orders are hereby amended as follows: Dr. Stevens shall pay four hundred dollars ($400.00) per month toward the fines and costs awarded in this case until and including the month of October, 2019. Thereafter, Dr. Stevens shall pay six hundred dollars ($600.00) per month in accordance with the payment plan approved by Order of November 2, 2018. All other provisions of the Commission's previous orders which are not in conflict with these provisions shall continue in full force and effect. Dr. Stevens is hereby cautioned that any further non-compliance with the orders of this Commission will subject his license to further discipline, which may include revocation.

Done this 23rd day of July, 2019.

vs.	)
VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O.,	)	CASE NO. 19 - 140
Respondent.	)

ORDER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDING LICENSE AND SETTING HEARING

Upon the verified Administrative Complaint of the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners, and pursuant to the authority of Ala. Code § 34-24-361(f) and 41-22-19(d), it is the ORDER of the Commission that the license to practice medicine, license certificate number DO.1189, of VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., be, and the same is hereby, immediately suspended. VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED to surrender the said license certificate to Karen Silas / MLC, a duly authorized agent of the Medical Licensure Commission. VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., is hereby ORDERED to immediately CEASE and DESIST from the practice of medicine in the State of Alabama until such time as the Administrative Complaint of the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners shall be heard by the Commission and a decision rendered thereon.

This action is made consistent with the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Medical Examiners and the Medical Licensure Commission and Ala. Code § 34-24-361(f), based upon the request of the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners upon the Board's finding and certification that the Board presently has evidence in its possession that the continuance in practice of VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., may constitute an immediate danger to his patients and the public.

It is the further ORDER of the Medical Licensure Commission that the Administrative Complaint of the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners be, and the same is hereby, set for hearing on the 25th day of September, 2019, at 9:30 a.m., at the offices of the Medical Licensure Commission, 848 Washington Avenue, Montgomery, Alabama.

VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., is ORDERED to appear before the Commission at the aforesaid time and date to answer the allegations of the Administrative Complaint filed by the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners.

It is the further ORDER of the Commission that a copy of the verified Administrative Complaint of the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners and a copy of this order shall be forthwith served upon VINSON M. DISANTO, D.O., by personally delivering the same to him at his office or at his residence or such place as he may be found in the State of Alabama, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to his last known address if he cannot be found in the State of Alabama. The Commission further directs that the service of process shall be made by Karen Silas/FedEx, who is designated as the duly authorized agent of the Medical Licensure Commission.

It is further ordered that the parties and their attorneys immediately check their calendars for scheduling conflicts. No requests for continuances based upon scheduling conflicts of attorneys or parties will be considered unless such request is made forty-five (45) days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

ORDERED at Montgomery, Alabama, this 26th day of June, 2019.

James H. Walburn, M.D.
