Pursuant the FTE exemption granted to collaborating physicians who are employed by the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH), a question was posed asking whether a physician, who is employed by the ADPH, and is, therefore, exempt from the FTE requirement, is allowed to have additional FTEs in a practice outside the ADPH. After consideration of the information, a motion was made to approve David Bryan Hicks, M.D., the physician in question, to be in a collaborative practice outside the practice of the ADPH. The motion was adopted without objection.

A motion was made that any similar application requesting collaboration outside of the ADPH be considered on an individual basis. The motion was adopted without objection.
