Petition for Declaratory Ruling; Intravenous Contrast Media Injections by Certified Radiologic Technologists Under Remote Radiologist Supervision with a Registered Nurse Physically Present at the Facility After consideration of request from Outpatient Imaging Affiliates, LLC, and Diagnostic Health MRI of Gadsden, LLC, dba Outpatient Diagnostic Center (ODC) for a Declaratory Ruling concerning a clinical policy and procedure proposed by ODC to permit the intravenous injection of contrast media by radiologic technologists in Alabama who hold an American Registry of Radiologic Technologist (ARRT) certification and registration while under the remote supervision of a licensed Alabama physician who is a board-certified radiologist, the Credentials Committee recommended issuing a Declaratory Ruling opining that a radiologic technologist who holds ARRT certification and registration may administer contrast media via an intravenous injection to a patient at an originating site in Alabama undergoing a Computed Tomography ("CT") or Magnetic Resonance Imaging ("MRI") diagnostic test pursuant to the order of a physician only when (a) such radiologic technologist is under the real-time supervision of an Alabama-licensed, board-certified radiologist who is virtually present in the office suite utilizing synchronous audio and visual real-time communications technology that enables the radiologist to observe, direct, and furnish assistance and direction to the radiologic technologist throughout the performance of the procedure; (b) an Alabama-licensed Registered Nurse ("RN"), Certified Registered Nurse Practitioner ("CRNP"), Physician Assistant ("PA"), or non-radiologist physician who is appropriately trained to treat adverse reactions to contrast media is physically present at the originating site whenever contrast media is being administered by intravenous injection to a patient; (c) the originating site facility's policy and procedures includes a modality for the supervising radiologist to provide real-time instructions to the RN,

CRNP, PA, or other physician assigned to treat contrast-media reactions; and (d) the originating site facility is equipped with the emergency supplies, equipment, and drugs necessary to treat a contrast media reaction. The motion was adopted without objection. The Declaratory Ruling shall be made a part of these Minutes and shall be attached hereto as Exhibit A.
