The Medical Licensure Commission held a Special Called Meeting on March 18, 2019, and heard the following cases: Briant David Baxt, M.D., Thomas Robert Klinner, Jr., M.D., and Paul Matthew Muratta, D.O. The Commission received as information the Physician Monitoring Report, the 2017 IMLCC Annual Report, and the 2018 IMLCC Annual Report. The Commission discussed and granted a request to continue a hearing for Dr. Frances Aretha Gayle. The Commission ordered that additional requirements be placed on Dr. Marie Cebert's medical license, discussed the progress of Dr. Duke Wood, and approved a Bill of Costs filed by the Alabama State Board of Medical Examiners regarding the Scott B. Robbins case. The Commission approved that the legal contract with Mr. Wallace Mills be amended to show his new firm, and the disposition of Dr. Maurice Liddell Furdge was deferred for March 29, 2019.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:15 p.m.
